Overview

Eli is a trial and appellate lawyer who represents plaintiffs and defendants in state and federal court.

Eli joined the firm after earning his J.D. at Stanford Law School, where he participated in the law school's prestigious Supreme Court Litigation Clinic. Eli received prizes for top marks in numerous classes at Stanford and gained experience as a summer associate at Scott Douglass & McConnico and at Sullivan & Cromwell.

Before law school, Eli graduated with honors from the University of Texas at Austin and worked in management consulting at PwC | Strategy&. During the pandemic, Eli joined a housing policy think tank to research how local governments were responding to Covid-19. Eli's background in corporate strategy and data analysis helps him approach complex problems for clients with a practical perspective.
