Currently defending four technology companies in patent-infringement lawsuits involving on-chip service capabilities used in integrated circuits. (Western District of Texas, Waco Division, the Honorable Judge Alan Albright presiding).

Currently defending AT&T, Inc. in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving voice-commerce applications. The case is stayed pending IPR. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division, the Honorable Judge Lee Yeakel presiding).

Currently representing record companies that produce, manufacture, distribute, sell and license the great majority of all legitimate commercial sound recordings in this country in a copyright-infringement lawsuit against internet service providers. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division, the Honorable Judge David Ezra presiding).

Defended Motorola Mobility in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving a wireless headset. Along with co-counsel from Kilpatrick Townsend, I tried the case to a complete defense verdict. (Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division, the Honorable Judge Lee Hudspeth presiding).

Defended Motorola Mobility in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving cell phone technology. Along with co-counsel from Winston Strawn, prepared the case for trial in the Honorable Judge Lee Yeakel's court. Reached favorable settlement on the day of trial. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division).

Represented the plaintiff, Engineered Arresting Systems Corporation, in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving a mechanical system to stop aircraft that overrun a runway. Along with co-counsel from Kilpatrick Townsend, secured a favorable claims construction from the Honorable Judge Lee Yeakel. The case favorably settled on the eve of trial. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division).

Defended Schlumberger in a patent-infringement suit brought by a subsidiary of Acacia, a publically-traded non-practicing entity. Along with co-counsel from Latham Watkins, SDM filed a motion to disqualify plaintiff's in-house general counsel, plaintiff's entire legal department, and plaintiff's outside counsel. In addition, SDM requested that the court dismiss the lawsuit. The Honorable Judge Lee Yeakel granted SDM's motion, disqualified all of plaintiff's counsel, and dismissed the lawsuit. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division).

Defended A&A Jewelers Ltd. in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving bracelets. Along with co-counsel from Venable LLP, filed a Motion to Transfer. The Honorable Judge Sam Sparks transferred the case. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division).

Defended the Walt Disney Company in a patent-infringement lawsuit involving video game technology. Along with co-counsel from Erise IP, filed a Motion to Dismiss or Transfer. The Honorable Judge Robert Pitman transferred the case. (Western District of Texas, Austin Division).

Currently representing Ethicon, Inc. and Johnson and Johnson in preparing products liability cases filed in multi-district litigation for trial once they are remanded to federal district courts in Texas. (Southern District of West Virginia, Charleston Division, the Honorable Judge Joseph Goodwin presiding).

Represented the owner of a hospital as plaintiff in a misappropriation-of-trade-secrets and breach-of-contract case. After a two-week jury trial with SDM partners, Steve Wingard and Abe Kuczaj, won a plaintiff's verdict wherein the jury found defendants breached their confidentiality agreement and caused damages to SDM's client. The court also awarded attorneys' fees to SDM's client. (Travis County District Court).

Represented one of the largest law firms in San Antonio, prevailed after more than a week-long jury trial in a breach-of-fiduciary-duty case. Plaintiff, a former client of the San Antonio firm, sued alleging legal malpractice and breach of fiduciary duty and sought damages in excess of $40 million. After defeating plaintiff's legal malpractice claims and establishing the client had suffered no damages, as a matter of law, the jury trial proceeded solely on the issue of whether defendants breached their fiduciary duties. In its verdict, the jury unanimously found in favor of SDM's client. The court then entered a final judgment that the plaintiff take nothing and imposed costs on the plaintiff. Plaintiff did not appeal the judgment. (Bexar County District Court).

Represented Austin's municipally-owned utility, Austin Energy, in a complex contractual dispute over electric transmission congestion in association with a West Texas wind farm. After a nearly two-week jury trial, jury verdict in favor of Austin Energy, which was upheld on appeal. (Travis County District Court).

Represented a jewelry store in claims against an alarm-monitoring company following a burglary of the jewelry store. After a week-long jury trial with SDM partner Ryan Squires, won a plaintiff's verdict in favor of SDM's client. (Travis County District Court).

Successfully defended a large national hotel chain in premises liability and dram shop cases.

Successfully defended a large national retail chain against claims for discovery sanctions made in premises liability cases filed all over the country.

Obtained numerous summary judgments and dismissals for clients in employment-related litigation involving claims of age discrimination, race discrimination and defamation.

Represented landowners, developers, general and limited partners, landlords and tenants in all types of disputes related to real estate development, including contract, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, lease disputes, and easement disputes.
