

Anthony Arguijo

Anthony is committed to achieving the best and most cost-effective result for his clients. He knows that each case is unique and focuses on developing creative solutions and strategies based on each individual client's need. As a former law clerk at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit and at the Supreme Court of Texas, Anthony is comfortable handling all types of complex disputes. He draws on both of these experiences to help clients navigate litigation and maximize their chance of success at every stage.

Recognitions & Awards

Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation

"Texas Rising Star" in Business Litigation by Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters business, 2017-2020

Vice-Chair, Hispanic Bar Association of Austin Charitable Foundation, 2018-2019

President, Hispanic Bar Association of Austin, 2016–2017

Austin Bar Association/AYLA Leadership Academy, 2016

Representative Cases

Oil and Gas, Natural Resources, and Energy Litigation

- (S.D. Tex.) — Part of trial team that defeated a $7 million surface remediation claim against an oil and gas operator.
- (S.D. Tex.); (5th Cir.) — Obtained summary judgment defeating breach-of-contract claim against oil and gas operator and awarding operator damages on its counterclaim; Defended both aspects of the summary judgment to the Fifth Circuit, which affirmed the trial

✉ aarguijo@scottdoug.com

Main Line: (512) 495-6300

Direct Line: (512) 495-6334

Fax: (512) 495-6399

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS:

- Appellate
- Business Torts
- Class Action Litigation
- Commercial Litigation
- Fiduciary Litigation
- Intellectual Property Litigation
- Labor and Employment Litigation
- Oil & Gas Litigation
- Oil & Gas Natural

court's decision.

- (Tex. Dist. – Travis County) — Obtained summary judgment defeating a personal injury claim seeking to hold an oil and gas operator vicariously liable for injuries sustained at a well-site.
- Tex. Dist. — La Salle, Dimmit, McMullen, and Atascosa Counties) — Defended oil and gas operators against claims of lease termination, royalty underpayment, premises liability, and breach of fiduciary duty and negotiated settlements of said cases.

Resources and Energy
Litigation

→ Personal Injury and Products Liability

→ White Collar Defense and Government Investigations
Group

Appeals

- (Texas Supreme Court) — Defeated opposing party's attempt to appeal judgment from the Sixth Court of Appeals to the Texas Supreme Court.
- (14th Court of Appeals) — Obtained judgment affirming the dismissal of fraud claims against a timeshare company and its CEO under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 91a.

Bar Admissions & Activities

Admitted to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, the U.S. District Courts for the Northern, Eastern, Southern, and Western Districts of Texas, and the State Bar of Texas

Steering Committee, Texas Minority Counsel Program

Member, State Bar of Texas Appellate Pro Bono Program

Associate, Robert W. Calvert American Inn of Court, 2014–present

Board Member, Hispanic Bar Association of Austin
Foundation, 2015–present

Member, Austin Young Lawyers Association

Education

The University of Texas School of Law, J.D., with honors, 2011

- Managing Editor, Texas Law Review (Vol. 89)
- National Champion and Best Brief, Uvaldo Herrera National Moot Court Competition
- Order of Barristers
- Outstanding Litigation Note, Texas Law Review Association

Texas Tech University, B.A., with honors, 2008

Articles & Presentations

Kennon L. Wooten and Anthony Arguijo, Rule 91a Dismissal Procedures: Basic Considerations and Unanswered Questions, 80 ADVOC.: STATE BAR LITIG. SEC. REP. 60 (2017).