Representative Matters

Commercial Litigation

Representing the owner of a hospital under construction in Lake Travis, prevailed after a two-week long jury trial in a breach-of-contract case. In its verdict, the jury found defendants breached their confidentiality agreement and caused damages to SDM's client. The court also awarded attorneys' fees to SDM's client.

Represented a jewelry store in claims against an alarm-monitoring company following a burglary of the jewelry store. Jury verdict in favor of SDM's client.

claims for discovery sanctions made in premises liability cases filed all over the country.

Obtained numerous summary judgments and dismissals for clients in employment-related litigation involving claims of age discrimination, race discrimination and defamation.

Advised a Texas university on evidentiary issues arising in a hotly-contested tenure revocation proceeding.

Represented landowners, developers, general and limited partners, landlords and tenants in all types of disputes related to real estate development, including contract, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud and lease disputes.

Governmental Entity Representation

Represented Austin's municipally-owned utility, Austin Energy, in a complex contractual dispute over electric transmission congestion in association with a West Texas wind farm. Jury verdict in favor of Austin Energy upheld on appeal.

Obtained a voluntary, non-settlement-related dismissal of all claims based on a developer's allegations that the City of Austin breached a prior settlement agreement and made a taking of the property at issue.

Professional Malpractice Defense

Representing one of the largest law firms in San Antonio, prevailed after more than a week-long jury trial in a breach-of-fiduciary-duty case. Plaintiff, a former client of the San Antonio firm, sued alleging legal malpractice and breach of fiduciary duty and sought damages in excess of $40 million. After defeating plaintiff's legal malpractice claims and establishing the client had suffered no damages, as a matter of law, the jury trial proceeded solely on the issue of whether defendants breached their fiduciary duties. In its verdict, the jury unanimously found in favor of SDM's client. The court then entered a final judgment that the plaintiff take nothing and imposed costs on the plaintiff. Plaintiff did not appeal the judgment.

Defended attorneys and law firms in legal malpractice and breach of fiduciary duty cases arising out of various areas of underlying substantive law, including commercial litigation and probate work.

Technology Litigation

Assisted as local counsel in technology litigation involving claims of trademark, copyright, and patent infringement, and misappropriation of trade secrets.

Along with attorneys from Kilpatrick Townsend, successfully defended Motorola Mobility in a jury trial against patent infringement claims related to wireless earpiece technology in the Western District of Texas. The jury returned a verdict of non-infringement and invalidity against all claims that were at issue.

Along with lead counsel from Latham & Watkins, won dismissal of a patent infringement lawsuit when our Motion to Disqualify opposing counsel was granted. SDM represented a large, publicly-traded energy company in defense of claims brought by a publicly-traded non-practicing entity. SDM filed a motion to disqualify plaintiff's in-house general counsel, plaintiff's entire legal department, and plaintiff's outside counsel. In addition, SDM requested that the court dismiss the lawsuit. The court granted SDM's motion, disqualified all of plaintiff's counsel, and dismissed the lawsuit.
